

This site is governed by the Oslo model

The Oslo model prevents and combats workplace crime, social dumping and corruption, as well as safeguards basic human rights and international humanitarian law.

Amongst other, that means:

- › We are permanent employees in a 100 % position
- › Our salaries are regulated by tariff rates
- › We receive salary payments directly to our bank accounts
- › At least 50 % of the work is carried out by skilled workers
- › At least 10 % of the work is carried out by apprentices
- › We have HSE-cards from day one
- › We register our entries and exits from the workplace
